Derbyshire Scheme for Financing Schools (DSFS) states:-

The governing body of each school is required to establish a register which lists, for each member of the governing body and the headteacher, any business interests they or any member of their immediate family may have. The register must be kept up to date with any notifications of changes and through an annual review of entries and must be made available for inspection by governors, staff, parents and the authority.

Financial Document 5 of the DSFS states:-

A governor, Head Teacher or any employee of the School who is in a position to influence a decision of the School, and with a business interest, direct or indirect, in a personal capacity in any contract with the School, shall declare that interest in writing to the Governing Body. In addition, it is the responsibility of governors and employees of the School to declare any business interest, direct or indirect, of immediate family members in any contract, proposed contract or other matter connected with the School. Such declarations shall be recorded in the register of business interests

The governing body of each school is required to establish a register which lists, for each member of the governing body and the headteacher, any business interests they or any member of their immediate family may have. The register must be kept up to date with any notifications of changes and through an annual review of entries and must be made available for inspection by governors, staff, parents and the authority.

Financial Document 5 of the DSFS states:-

A governor, Head Teacher or any employee of the School who is in a position to influence a decision of the School, and with a business interest, direct or indirect, in a personal capacity in any contract with the School, shall declare that interest in writing to the Governing Body. In addition, it is the responsibility of governors and employees of the School to declare any business interest, direct or indirect, of immediate family members in any contract, proposed contract or other matter connected with the School. Such declarations shall be recorded in the register of business interests
